

LEVELLERS' NIGHT IN OXFORD

Dick Gaughan

CELTIC MUSIC AND SUBVERSIVE SONGS

“A TOWERING PRESENCE ON THE SCOTS MUSICAL SCENE
FOR OVER 30 YEARS...”
BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards

“There can be few other singers capable of turning from aching tenderness to the high dudgeon of political rage within the space of a line...”

Tim Cummings, The Independent

“I tend to side with people like the Diggers, those English revolutionaries who fought without weapons for a fair share of the land that rightfully was the property of everyone to begin with,” says Gaughan, summing up his philosophy... from an article by William Nevins

Sunday

18 February

Doors open 7pm,
music soon after

Holywell

Music Room

supported by:

Luke Daniels,

Sea Green Singers

Tickets £10 (concs. £8)

Buy online from

www.wegotickets.com

or at the door

Levellers' Night is a fundraiser for the annual Levellers' Day in Burford, held in 2007 on Saturday 19 May.

Levellers Day
www.levellers.org.uk